

Join us at BETT 2018

Technology for Effective Teacher Training

THURSDAY, 25TH JANUARY 2018 | EXCEL LONDON |

You are invited to this exclusive session which will focus on the challenges of teacher training in the context of technological developments.

Venue: Platinum Suite

Time: 1:00 pm - 2:00 pm GMT

Style: Audience engagement

Host: Doug Brown

About the session

This session aims at bringing together those leading change in Higher Education and influencing change in Teacher Education. It will offer an opportunity to hear from senior leaders who are researching the right approaches and best practices for effective teacher training. Attendees will have an opportunity to participate in questions and answers in this lively event.

Guest Contributors

Professor Rose Luckin

Professor Don Passey

Professor Christina Preston

Professor Sarah Younie

Dr. Anne Preston

Diane Bannister

Outcomes

By the end of the event, participants will:

- Understand senior leaders' experiences of technology change and best practices
- Discuss issues faced by institutions in Europe and United Kingdom
- Explore thought leadership on leading technology change and tips for implementations
- Discuss and network with thought leaders and senior executives
- Experience and hear about key projects currently taking place in Europe

SPACE IS LIMITED.